GLOBAL HEALTH 2018, The Seventh International Conference on Global Health Challenges

<https://www.iaaria.org/conferences2018/GLOBALHEALTH18.html>

November 18 - 22, 2018 - Athens, Greece

Healthcare continues to pose a major challenge for developing countries. The successes of individual health programs remain overshadowed by the problems these nations face in the 21st century. In fact, as the global population pushes past 7 billion and more people reach old age, the number of diseases and health problems is on the rise.

This track examines health promotion and disease prevention in clinical practice, including the actions required to treat diseases, in addition to rehabilitation care, throughout the lifespan and across different service settings.

The track can also focus on health issues, international health priorities, policies, the implications and opportunities for physical therapists, medical professionals, nurses, etc.

Topics include, but not limited to:

- Non-pharmacological approaches in treating chronic diseases
- Prevention in chronic diseases
- Health promotion
- Professional ethics in medical field
- Public health issues
- Ergonomics
- Sport science
- Neuro-science
- Exercise physiology
- Cardiac rehabilitation
- Pulmonary rehabilitation
- Pediatric rehabilitation
- Geriatric rehabilitation
- Health care management
- Specifics techniques in rehabilitation
- International health priorities
