INFOCOMP 2018, The Eighth International Conference on Advanced Communications and Computation
July 22, 2018 to July 26, 2018 - Barcelona, Spain

<http://www.iaria.org/conferences2018/INFOCOMP18.html>

Modeling and optimization are important design phases for software and hardware systems. With the development of mobile and wireless systems and applications, health and ambient systems, there is a need for new concepts and practices for modeling and optimization to be generalized.

MODOPT 2018 is dedicated to present and discuss innovative solutions or industrial impact on modeling and optimization. We solicit both academic, research, and industrial contributions. We welcome technical papers presenting research and practical results, position papers addressing the pros and cons of specific proposals, such as those being discussed in the standard fora or in industry consortia, survey papers addressing the key problems and solutions on any of the above topics short papers on work in progress, and panel proposals.

Prospective authors are invited to submit original papers on topics including, but not limited to:

- Foundations of modeling and optimization
- Enterprise modeling and optimization
- Modeling and optimization in real-time systems
- Modeling and optimization in complex systems
- Model-based software and systems engineering
- Modeling computations on modern HPC architectures
- Empirical modeling
- Modeling data-intensive computing
- Algorithms and flow optimization
- Socio-inspired optimization algorithms
- Quality assurance and modeling (analysis, testing, verification)
- Functional and non-functional properties of models
- Programming models and frameworks
- Parallel algebraic modeling
- Model transformations
- Modeling in Internet-of-Things systems

- Modeling and optimization in Cloud-oriented systems
- Tools for modeling and optimization
- Languages and notations for modeling and optimization
- Programming aspects for modeling and optimization
- Parallel I/O optimization, convex optimization, stochastic optimization
- Quality, clarity, and accuracy in modeling
