

Dr. Christelle Scharff

Dr. Christelle Scharff is a Professor of Computer Science, an Associate Dean and the Co-director of the AI Lab in the Seidenberg School of Computer Science and Information Systems at Pace University. She has a Ph.D. in Symbolic Artificial Intelligence (Theorem Proving and Automated Deduction) from INRIA, the French National Institute for Research in Digital Science and Technology.

Her current research focuses on global software engineering, mobile for social change and machine learning. She published more than 30 papers in these areas. She was awarded grants from NSF, IBM, Microsoft, VentureWell, and Google.

She has taught numerous courses including software engineering, quality assurance & reliability, databases, programming, artificial intelligence and mobile application development at Pace University, but also in France, Senegal, Benin, Cambodia and Vietnam. She was a US Fulbright scholar in Senegal in 2012-2013 and 2019-2020. In her role as an associate dean, she oversees initiative in interdisciplinarity, internationalization, innovation and entrepreneurship.