

Dr. Hermann Kaindl

Hermann Kaindl joined TU Wien in early 2003 as a full professor, where he served until September 2022. After his retirement, he is still working on (funded) research projects at three different universities.

Prior to moving to academia, he was a senior consultant with the division of program and systems engineering at Siemens Austria.

He is a Senior Member of the IEEE and a Distinguished Scientist member of the ACM, as well as a Fellow of IARIA.