

Dr. Krzysztof Pietroszek is an Assistant Professor of Virtual and Augmented Reality in the School of Communication at American University in Washington, DC. He is also the founding director of the Institute for Immersive Designs, Experiences, Applications, and Stories at American University. Krzysztof received a Ph.D. in Computer Science from the University of Waterloo, and M.F.A. in Film from York University, and M.A in Communication Studies (Documentary Film) from Wilfrid Laurier University. His research includes designing and studying immersive stories, coding VR games, and creating virtual, mixed, and augmented reality technologies. As a filmmaker, Krzysztof produced an award-winning theatrically released feature film and written/directed a number of short films.

Institute for
IDEAS

Founding Director, Institute for IDEAS
Associate Director, CEF
Affiliated Faculty, AU Game Lab
Affiliated Faculty, Dept. of Computer Science
Assistant Professor, Film and Media Arts
School of Communication
American University, Washington, DC