Samia Loucif (samia.loucif@zu.ac.ae) is an Associate Professor at Zayed University since Aug. 2019. Prior to joining Zayed University, Dr. Samia was an Associate Professor at ALHOSN University from Aug. 2007 to 2018 where she was the University General Computer courses coordinator and the Chair of the Software Engineering Department.

She was a Post-Doctoral Research Fellow in the Faculty of Engineering, Moncton University, New Brunswick, Canada, and as Assistant Professor in UAEU.

Dr. Loucif has been member of organizing committees of several international conferences and workshops. She has served on program committees of over 30 international conferences and workshops, and reviewer of well-established international journals, as well as research grants. Dr. Samia is member of the research team Zayed University Interactive Media Lab, and member of IEEE.