

Dr. William (Bill) YURCIK

Dr. William (Bill) YURCIK has 40+ of years of experience managing global IP networks including lead engineer positions at NASA (NASA Science Internet), the U.S. Army Research Laboratory (ARL), the U.S. Naval Research Laboratory (NRL), the National Center for Supercomputing Applications (NCSA), and Verizon. In the role of principal investigator for external research projects, he has received cumulative funding amounting to $3,855,500. He has published 200+ peer-reviewed research papers with 150+ different coauthors on topics ranging broadly from healthcare security, fintech security, cyberinsurance, cybersecurity management/decision-making, and cybersecurity economics. Lastly for formal education background, he has 2 Bachelor degrees (Electrical Engineering & Acoustics-University of Maryland), 3 Masters degrees (Electrical Engineering & Computer Science/Johns Hopkins, & Telecommunications/George Washington), and is PhD ABD from the University of Pittsburgh (Information Science-Telecommunications).